

We should not make a technical hobby that has deveoloped endless electronic devices to better the world into a CB band. When the 13WPM code requirement was removed, this allowed a dilution of the the amateur population. Now it is being advocated that we eliminate any filter at all. This is totally unacceptable. This will create a radio GHETTO.